HONGKONG, TUESDAY, NOV. 2, 1869.
OFFICIAL LANDING OF H. R. H. PRINCE ALFRED.
His Royal Highness made his official entry into Hongkong this forenoon, under the most auspicious circumstances, and with royal punctuality. The preparations for the land of boats were made and carried out admirably by Captain Thomsett, in the launch, and the avenue made up of boats, oars, rowers, and flags presented a very lively appearance on the clear blue water of the harbor. The Galates, all the other men-of-war, and many of the merchant vessels, were gaily dressed in bunting; and the Pedder's Wharf was in all the glory of its triumphal archway, the pier being laid with crimson cloth. The road to the Clock Tower was lined by the 75th Regiment, and an immense crowd assembled here and on every available spot or verandah commanding a view of the Prince's disembarkation.
Precisely at eleven o'clock, the hurrahs from the Galates and the line of boats came swelling along the boat line, and the oars of the various crews rose like a tall fence along the avenue; when immediately the Duke's boat, with the Royal Standard, came up the strait. As His Royal Highness stepped on to the pier, he was received by His Excellency the Governor, and all the leading officials connected with Hongkong, both British and foreign. The shoutings and hurrahs with which the Prince was then received by the mass outside the archway must have been conclusive proof that his reception was cordial and hearty in the highest degree. The hurrah commonly termed the British cheer was mingled with the more jerky, but not less hearty, welcome of the Germans, and the "viva" of other nationalities.
Amongst those who accompanied the Governor on the Wharf were—Hon. Acting Chief Justice Paton, Hon. Acting Attorney General Pollard, Hon. Colonial Secretary, Hon. C. Smith, Hon. H. B. Gibb, Hon. W. Keewick, Hon. J. B. Taylor, Hon. R. Rowett, Dr. Murray, Colonial Surgeon, a large number of British, American, and Spanish naval officers, and Consular officials, including Mr D. B. Robertson, C.B., H.M. Consul at Canton. His Royal Highness having entered the chair prepared for him, immediately proceeded to the City Hall, where troops drawn up in line, with the Band of the 29th, received him with the usual formalities. Entering the Building he was met by the Committee, who escorted him round the various rooms. Commencing with the Museum, where Mr Landstein's very fine exhibition of enamels attracted much attention from His Royal Highness and those who accompanied him, they proceeded through the Library and thence upstairs to the Theatre. This received unqualified encomiums, which must be extremely satisfactory to the gentlemen under whose care the architectural and decorative departments were carried out. Thence proceeding to the ante-room, the party reached the reception room, when H. R. H. seated himself on the dais prepared for him, and the private reception for local Officials, Consuls, and Naval and Military Officers of Rank took place. At about 11.45 the public levee commenced. We subjoin a list of the names handed in, with the remark that no order of precedence was observed, and none is attempted in this list.

After the reception, the deputations from the Hongkong Community, the Paisee Community, the Chinese Community, the Chinese Schoolmasters, and the City Hall Community, were in turn presented; and the addresses therefrom read and received.
Mr T. Pyke read the address from the Hongkong Community, which is in the following terms:—
To His Royal Highness
ALFRED ERNEST ALBERT,
Duke of Edinburgh, K.G. &c.
We, the inhabitants of the Colony of Hongkong, desire to approach Your Royal Highness to offer our heartfelt congratulations and welcome upon your arrival at this remote dependency of the Crown of Great Britain.
It affords us peculiar pleasure upon the occasion of this first visit of a Member of the Royal Family of England to this Colony to express our loyal sentiments to a Son of a Sovereign so beloved by Her subjects and so esteemed and respected by other nationalities as is Her Majesty Queen Victoria.
We beg also to express a hope that Your Royal Highness will experience some pleasure in finding at so great a distance from home, how in the space of a few years under the enlightened Reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty, and under the Blessings of the Institutions of England, and the prestige of her name, a Colony so important and considerable as this has arisen and been maintained in peace upon the shores of the most populous and exclusive Empire in the world.
With sentiments of loyalty and respect, we have the honor to be Your Royal Highness most obedient Servants.
His Royal Highness then read, in a very clear and hearty manner, the following reply:—
GENTLEMEN,—So answer that I can return to your address will sufficiently convey to you my thanks, or express the pleasure I have derived from the manifestations of loyalty and affection to Her Majesty the Queen by which I have been met upon my arrival in Hongkong.
For myself I rejoice at the opportunity which the great Emporium of British Trade in China and whose growing prosperity offers so striking an example of what may be effected by energy and enterprise under the influence of free institutions.
In your magnificent harbor the navies of Great Britain can ride in safety whilst you continue to prosecute that Commercial activity which, under their protection, would seem to make Hongkong one of the most important cities of the East, and to raise her inhabitants to a high prosperity. I will only add that I shall ever take a deep concern in all that promotes the prosperity of this loyal and enterprising community.
To the Inhabitants of the Colony of Hongkong.

Mr D. Rutting next appeared as spokesman of the Paisee deputation, and read as follows:—
To His Royal Highness
ALFRED ERNEST ALBERT,
The Duke of Edinburgh, K.G. &c.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS.
The Members of the Paisee Community, resident in Hongkong, desire to approach Your Royal Highness with expressions of the sincerest loyalty to the Queen, and of affectionate regard to Your Royal Highness, both individually, and as representative of Her Majesty.
The Paisee residents in the dominions of the Queen of England, or rather the Empire of India as they are proud to style their Sovereign, have ever been sensible of the great benefits of the enlightened rule under which it is their fortune to be placed; and those who are temporarily sojourning in this Colony feel that they cannot appropriately allow the present opportunity to pass without expressing their loyalty and respect; and they trust they may be permitted to cherish the hope that the heart-felt welcome with which they now greet Your Royal Highness, will be retained as a small item in the happy recollections of Your Royal Highness's travels round the world.
We have the honor to be
Your Royal Highness's
Obedient and humble servants,
(Signed) D. RUTTING.

" BAPOOJEE PALLANJEE RANJEE.
" NUSSEERWANJEE P. M. FERDIE.
" AND 63 OTHERS.
The Chinese deputation was next introduced by Mr Smith (Registrar General), and the peacock's feathers and peculiar togas of the leading men must have been somewhat of a novelty to His Royal Highness. Mr Smith explained the object of the address; and after each member of the large deputation had paid their respects in their own fashion, they withdrew. This address covered a large surface of crimson silk, and was in the form of a most elaborately ornamented and illuminated scroll. We will publish a translation in our Overland edition.
Mr F. Stewart (Inspector of Government Schools) then introduced the deputation of Government Schoolmasters, of whom there were about a dozen. The address (which was briefly explained by Mr Stewart to his Royal Highness) consisted of a roll of red satin with variegated border, the back being of green silk. The characters were beautifully written in gold, as in that from the Chinese Community, but the latter must be admitted to have been more gorgeous and costly than the former. The following is a translation:—
AN ODE IN HONOUR OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ALFRED OF EDINBURGH.
Illustrious Prince!
Thou art all glorious as leaves of Gem, and as branches of Gold.
Thou art skilled in War: skilled also in Letters.
Heaven having gifted thee with matchless talents.
Thou art now visiting many lands, and glory accompanies thy Royal Banner. May happy stars shine on all thy path!
All regard thee with respect, and bid thee welcome.
Dear to us the sweet Tong tree, thy love will abide with us:
All will cherish remembrance of thee. Here, in Hongkong, royal favours surround us.
Our youth, by education, are made talented: They have all the blessings of knowledge and refinement.
Royal Prince! Thou hast condescended to visit us:
We, the schoolmasters, approach thee with reverence.
Deign, too, to convey to Her Majesty, the Queen,
This our ardent wish, that she may enjoy Perfect Peace, Happiness, Length of Days, and the Love of All.
[Signed by all the Government Schoolmasters in Hongkong.]
Hon. W. Keswick (as Chairman of the City Hall Committee) then stepped forward, accompanied by the members of Committee, and read the following address:—
To His Royal Highness
ALFRED ERNEST ALBERT,
Duke of Edinburgh, K.G. &c.
MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS.
The City Hall Community desire me to welcome you most warmly to the Colony of Hongkong, and to convey to Your Royal Highness the expression of their grateful thanks for the kind consideration you have displayed in honoring this ceremonial with your presence. When the first stone of the present Governor in February, 1867, none who were then present could have anticipated that its completion and formal opening would be inaugurated under the gracious auspices of the first British Prince who has ever visited the distant East.
This happy termination of their labors will more than compensate the Committee for the many difficulties, delays, and disappointments with which they have had to contend in bringing the arduous undertaking to a successful conclusion.
Your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to accede to our request and sincerely hope will prove of permanent benefit to the residents of Hongkong. We can already boast of a library recently formed, and which, though still not very extensive, contains several very valuable works upon the East, and that portion of it especially with which we have most to do: the museum we trust will soon be filled with choice and curious specimens of the natural and artificial productions of the vast Empire, on the borders of which we are situated, while provision has been made in the Theatre and the ball room for the amusement of the residents and our numerous visitors.
The building itself may fairly be said to constitute one of the greatest ornaments of the City of "Victoria," and will long redound to the honor of the architects by whom it was designed and completed.
Your Royal Highness has but just arrived from visiting Australia, where you have seen what British energy and perseverance have achieved in its vast and flourishing Colonies, and still more recently you have have been a ruck by the contrast presented by the peculiar habits and manners of the Japanese and the Chinese. Your reception everywhere has been gratifying, and though the Colony of Hongkong is more remote from England than almost any other of her possessions, and in extent perhaps the least, its residents however yield to none in fervent loyalty to the Crown and warm attachment to the Royal Family. We all feel grateful for the visit you have paid to Hongkong, and in particular the City Hall Committee again tender their warm thanks to you for honoring this ceremonial with your presence. We shall long look back with pleasure to this auspicious day, and earnestly pray that Your Royal Highness may be blessed with health, long life, and prosperity.

—To which His Royal Highness read the following reply:—
GENTLEMEN,—It is with mingled feelings of gratification at the duty which I have been enabled to undertake, and admiration of the magnificent structure which is before me, that I have complied with your invitation to inaugurate this building.
It is my most earnest prayer that the beautiful Hall may realize all the expectations of its promoters, and continue throughout the great future of this Colony a source of permanent and ever-increasing prosperity.
I shall never cease to rejoice that I have been enabled to visit this distant portion of the British Empire, and to become acquainted with a people of which I shall carry back with me the most pleasing recollections.
I thank you for your kind wishes on my behalf and for the expressions of your loyalty to the Crown, and warm attachment to the Royal Family.
ALFRED.
To the City Hall Committee.
And thus the ceremonies in connection with the inauguration and opening of the City Hall were concluded; the Prince retiring shortly after twelve o'clock noon, amid the cheers of all assembled and the strains of the National Anthem. It must be said that the open, frank and genial manner shown by the Prince has made a very strong impression in his favor.
We shall give some further particulars as to decorations, &c., at a future time; but it may suffice for the present to state that the building and its decorations took our visitors a little by surprise regarded as a civil-colonial display in a place so far removed from the greater centres of civilization.
LOCAL.
We are requested to state that the Theatrical performance to be given to-morrow evening, in honor of H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh, will commence at 8.30 P.M., the doors to be opened at 8 o'clock.
AFTER what we have already said regarding the illuminations, there need not be much added except as to the general effect of the united and universal effort to make it an undoubted success. Not only has this desired result been arrived at in the proportion which Hongkong might be expected to produce, but the result has been such as would have done credit to any city in Europe. Every one who saw the many superior pieces of illumination, and the general effect of all as seen from the Harbor, agree that only at one or two spots in the world is such an unqualified success possible.
In addition to what we have already described, we may notice the Kowloon Police station Dr. Murray's house, the outline of the Gap, the P. & O. Co's letter "A," and the red cross over St. Paul's College, as deserving of special mention. Any minor details must be reserved for a future issue.
H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh, as Captain of H.M.S. Galatee, joined most heartily with his officers in bidding good-bye to Admiral Keppel. It is a long time since an old Admiral's departure from China was regarded with so much interest as was that of Sir Henry Keppel's this morning per Salatte. His Royal Highness pulled the stroke oar in the boat which took the Admiral to the steamer, the other oars being taken by officers of the Galatee.—Commodore Jones acted as oarsman. When the boat came alongside the steamer, His Royal Highness stepped aside and gave place to the Admiral in going on board, and then (taking off his cap) cried, "Now, boys, give us a cheer." Three hearty cheers were then led off by the Duke, which were taken up and continued by those on board the mail steamer, Admiral Keppel himself replying with one cheer more as the steamer was moving.
The incident was regarded with interest by all. Admiral Keppel and His Excellency the Governor were both on board. About half a dozen sailors accompanied the steamer down the harbour; and the Vice-Commodore of the Yacht Club (Mr Hawke), by the courtesy of Mr George (Heard), hoisted his flag on this occasion on the fine American yacht Loit-er.
SOMETHING TO LOVE.—The human heart, of course, has its pouting fits; it determines to live alone, to flee into desert places, to have no employment, that is, to love nothing, but to keep on sullenly beating, beating, until death lays his little finger on the sulky thing, and all is still. It goes away from the world, and straightway, shut out from human company, it falls in love with a plant, a stone—yea, it daunders cat or dog, and calls the creature darling. Yea, it is the beautiful necessity of our nature to love something.—Jerrild.
THE Earl of —, of pompous notoriety and parsimonious celebrity, superintended personally the produce of his dairy, and not unfrequently sells the milk to the village children with his own hands. One morning a pretty little girl presented her penny and her pithier to his lordship for milk. Pleased with the appearance of the child, he patted her on the head, and gave her a kiss. "Now," said he, "my pretty lass, you may tell, as long as you live, that you have been kissed by an earl." "Ah," replied the child, "but you took the penny though!"
THREE little boys were disputing as to whose father said the shortest grace. First Boy—"My father says, 'Lord, we thank Thee for these provisions.'" Second Boy—"And mine says, 'Father, bless this food to us.'" Third Boy—"Ah! but mine's the best of all; he shoves his plate toward mamma, and says, 'Darn ye, fill up!'"
